LENT AT FCC

FCC Welcomes the Rev. Dr. James McDonald "Home" to preach Sunday, March 29

We're excited to welcome a special guest preacher at the end of the month who began his journey of faith right here at FCC!

Jim writes: "What makes this day with Flossmoor Community Church special for me is that FCC was where my grandmother, Ninon Walden, was Director of Music, for 19 years from the late 1940s to the late 1960s—my formative years. As a kid, I used to sit in the chancel next to her at the organ console as she played. Names of choir members, especially Ellen Mersh, Betty Crouse, Beryl Sprinkle, still come to mind. Dr. Bell was the senior pastor during that time, and he and his wife, Helen, were formative influences on my life. FCC's Youth Minister in the mid-1960s, Bill Myers, was important for me in my final high school years. When my grandmother retired, she had 13 choirs, including adult, youth and children's choirs along with several handbell choirs. I loved being a part of FCC."

From 2011 to 2019, Jim served as President of San Francisco Theological Seminary (SFTS) and Professor of Faith and Public Life. In June 2019, SFTS completed a successful merger with the University of Redlands (U of R), creating a new Graduate School of Theology. Following the merger, Jim assumed a new role as Special Assistant to the President of the U of R. Before coming to SFTS, Jim worked for 13 years at Bread for the World, in Washington, DC, where he served as Vice President for Policy and Program, and then Managing Director. Prior to Bread for the World, Jim served as director of the Humphrey Fellowship Program at American University, and taught courses at George Washington University and American University.

Jim is married to Dean McDonald, also a Presbyterian minister. They have three grown children and four (growing) grandchildren.

"Ch-Ch-Ch-Ch-Changes"

There is nothing permanent except change.

~Heraclitus~

I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

~Isaiah 43:19~

So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away—behold, everything has become new!

~2 Corinthians 5:17~

More than being aware of a certain permanence about the ongoing reality of change, healthy congregations welcome changes that correspond with discerning how, when, and where God is making holy transitions. This is because throughout the Bible, God is regularly up to doing new things around us and generating new creation within us that lead God's people into the future, within and beyond their community.

"Holy Transition: God Moves Us from One Thing to Another"

is our 2020 Lenten theme. During this season of repentance, we contemplate and respond to how God presents us with changes that lead to redemption. May we embrace transitions that will make us the new creations God intends us to be.

March 1	Matthew 4:1-11	"From Tempted to Faithful"
March 8	Acts 20:36-38	"From Uncertainty to Stability"
March 15	John 4:5-30, 39-42	"From Enemy to Advocate"
March 22	Psalms 23	"From Scattered to Shepherded" with a time for healing and wholeness
March 29	Ezekiel 37:1-14	"From Death at Breath"
April 5	Matthew 21:1-15	"From Palms to Passion"

Peace,

THIS IS OUR STORY 2020 CHALLENGE

We face a ~~$77,252~~ <sup>$60,690</sup> budget shortfall.

The 2020 Stewardship Campaign concluded in December, but the work of our committee continues throughout the year. As of today, our pledge total for 2020 is significantly behind our total for 2019 ($626,311). While we are still expecting more pledges to come in, we are facing a budget shortfall.

We could erase our shortfall if FCC received 300 individual contributions of $258.

5 people have already stepped up to the challenge, and others have increased their pledges - thank you! We invite you to be one of the 300 who, in addition to what you are already giving, participates in this challenge by giving a one-time contribution of $258 to support our budget. These funds will support the ministries and mission of FCC and will assist in putting us in a stronger financial position in anticipation of the arrival of our new Pastor later this year.

Please give this challenge prayerful consideration. If $258 is out of your reach, consider giving a portion of the challenge. All giving is deeply appreciated. Give what you can because your generosity makes a difference.

@ the Community House

BYOB and snacks and come out to try your hand at luck on the unluckiest night of the luckiest month during a fun Adults Only BINGO night with split-the-pot cash prize! $5 entry includes your first card. Additional cards are $2 (cash only).

★ Our last event raised nearly $800 for FCC. ★
This month's pot will go to our 2020 Challenge!

When we have this much fun together, everyone wins!
Must be 21+ Sponsored by the Board of Congregational Connections.

SUNDAY MORNING COURSES

(Continuing) Book Study: Holy Envy

Sundays March 1, 15, 22, 29 @ 11 am / Family Room

Led by Trina Hayes

Continuing our chapter by chapter book study of Holy Envy: Finding God in the Faith of Others. This book by Barbara Brown Taylor tackles the questions and concerns that arise when we encounter anything different or "other." We are exploring the spiritual riches God shares with us through the faith of others while we remain true to our own faith and beliefs.

Discovery Book Club: Women Talking

Sunday March 8 @ 11 am / Family Room

Led by Trina Hayes

Women Talking, by Miriam Toews, is based on the true story of 130 Mennonite women and children in Bolivia who were drugged and raped for four years and had been told that ghosts had attacked them. Toews turns their story into a propulsive novel showing how eight women in the colony might have reacted. As they were all illiterate, their story is narrated by a shunned man who keeps "minutes" of their conversations. This is an original and fierce manifesto that reveals itself in an irresistible story that it's tempting to read in one sitting.

We encourage you to shop local and purchase the books featured by FCC Adult Education at Bookie's Bookstore in Homewood.

Welcome, Travis Adams!

We are excited to announce that we have called a new Director of Youth Ministries at FCC! Travis Adams comes to FCC having worked with youth at churches in St. Louis and in London, England. He brings a new energy and perspective to our great tradition of Youth Ministry at FCC, and has a strong commitment to creating relationships and sharing faith with young people. In his letter to the DYM Search Committee, Travis wrote, "I deeply value the immeasurable worth of having a space of worship and community where one is permitted to ask questions without fear, express feelings without constraint and encounter love without conditions.

When such parameters and expectations are met, I have been blessed to see God do amazing things in the most unlikely of places."

Travis and his wife, Megan are new to the area and found FCC after searching for churches to visit that were progressive, open and affirming! They visited several times beginning in December and we are blessed that his visits lined up with our search for a new Director of Youth Ministries. Megan is a veterinarian and practices at a clinic in Orland Park. They currently live in Frankfort with their three lovable dogs!

Travis began working with church staff, Youth Leadership Staff and our Youth in late February. Please introduce yourself to Travis and keep him in your prayers as he leads our exceptional youth and volunteers.

Many thanks to our Search Committee who called Travis:

Rebecca Courington, Annie Detrick, Sharon Dobben, Dana Dolan,
Matt Epperson, and Denise Morris
